

ERASMUS+KA1 teacher training course in Riga

Our courses on diversity and special education will let you explore European cultural diversity, language diversity. It is 100% financed by ERASMUS+ KA1 staff training grant

Our team consists of university teachers and experts.

We guarantee that you will feel at home in Riga, vibrant capital city at the Baltic Sea.

We have made ERASMUS+ KA1 teacher training course in Riga so that you can learn, get to know Latvia and its culture, get to know each other and make contacts.

We invite you to our ERASMUS+ KA1

Course dates in Riga in 2015:

- European Project management: 3rd to 7th August
- European Diversity Education: 10 to 14th August and 14th to 18th September
- Inclusion in European Context: 14th to 18th September
- European Entrepreneurship education and creativity: 21st to 25th September
- Digital classroom: 21st to 25th September

Course dates in Riga 2016:

- European Project management: 8th to 12th August
- European Diversity Education: 15 to 19th August and 12th to 16th September
- Inclusion in European Context: 12th to 16th September
- European Entrepreneurship education and creativity: 26th to 30th September
- Digital classroom: 26th to 30th September

During the courses participants are also observing classes at local schools

Full description of training contents

The language of the training: English

Preparation: A course description with bibliography will be sent to the participants as well as a short needs analyses and profile (photo, experiences, hobbies)

Objectives: that participants develop their intercultural competences;
that participants understand important concepts for dealing with diversity;
that participants learn and practice strategies for dealing with diversity in the classroom;
that participant develop new networks and new contacts

Methodology: learning by doing, interactive short lectures, discussions, cooperative learning, drama

Follow-up: trying out the teaching programme that participants have worked out and presented during the course, sharing their experience online