If you do not understand something, please ask your Centre. The full regulations, which set out your rights and obligations as a candidate, are in the Regulations booklet which is available from your Centre or you can download it from cambridgeenglish.org/help

- Cambridge Assessment English: An examination board and part of Cambridge Assessment. Experts in English language assessment, responsible for creating, distributing and marking your exam.
- Centre: a Cambridge Assessment English Authorised Examination Centre. Centres are independently run institutions and Cambridge Assessment English is not responsible for any actions or omissions.
- Candidate: someone who has registered to take a Cambridge Assessment English exam.

1. Entry regulations

- Cambridge Assessment English exams may be taken by people of any age, gender, race, nationality or religion. Although they are designed for native speakers of languages other than English, no language related restrictions apply.
- All components of an exam must be taken on the dates specified.

2. Entering for an exam

- You must register for an exam through a Centre. Your contract is with the Centre and you pay your exam fees to them.
- You cannot transfer an entry from one exam to another.
- Cambridge Assessment English will always try to make arrangements for candidates with special requirements (e.g. extra time or adapted papers). You must tell your Centre as soon as possible if you have any special requirements. Depending on what is required and which exam you are taking, up to 3 months' notice may be required.

3. Taking the exam

- The Centre will tell you where and when your exam will be held. You must make sure that you arrive well before the scheduled start time. If you arrive late for any part of the exam, report to the supervisor. In some cases you may be allowed to take the exam. Please check your Centre's policy for late arrivals. If you are admitted late, not all of your work may be accepted.
- Bring the pencils, pens, etc. that you need for the exam.
- You must bring a photo ID on the day of the test unless you are taking Starters, Movers or Flyers. The ID must be valid, original and unexpired. It must be government-issued (e.g. passport) or a college/university photo ID can be used if you are from a country where there are no compulsory government-issued IDs and provided the college/university carried out appropriate checks before issuing the ID. If you do not have a suitable ID, you must notify your Centre of this before you register for an exam. If you are aged 17 or under and do not have suitable ID, the Centre will provide you with a Candidate Identification form that you must fill in before the exam day and bring with you to the exam. If you do not bring your ID to the exam, you will not be allowed to take the exam and you will not receive a result.
- The Centre will give you a copy of the Notice to Candidates which tells you how you must behave in the exam. You must read it carefully. If you do not follow the instructions or regulations, you may be stopped from taking the exam, or you may not receive a result.
- You must not keep any electronic items, such as mobile phones, audio/video players/recorders, cameras, etc. in the exam room during the exam. Before the test day make sure you know your Centre's policy regarding electronic items and what kind of storage they can offer on the test day. If your Centre advises you they cannot provide secure storage for your electronic items, you may wish to leave them at home.
- You are not allowed to wear a wrist watch during the exam unless you are taking Starters, Movers or Flyers. Your centre or invigilator will tell you if you must leave it on the desk or elsewhere.
- The use of offensive (for example, rude or racist) language in your examination answers will not be accepted.
- You will be asked to fill out a Candidate Information Sheet unless you are taking Starters, Movers or Flyers. Cambridge Assessment English uses this information as part of its research and development programme to improve the quality of the exams. The information you give is treated anonymously and is strictly confidential.
- You may be asked to complete a short 'Anchor Test'. Cambridge Assessment English uses this information as part of its quality control programme. The 'Anchor Test' will not affect your exam result.
- Cambridge Assessment English may also record your Speaking test as part of Cambridge Assessment English's quality control procedures.
- If you take the First, Advanced or Proficiency exam, a photo of you is required and will be taken of you on the test day as an extra way of checking your identity. For Key, Preliminary, Business Preliminary, Business Vantage and Business Higher, you must tell your Centre whether you wish to have a test day photo taken, so the Centre can offer you a test day photo service. The list of exams where Test Day Photos are mandatory or available is subject to change. You or a parent or guardian must give your consent to the Centre for your photo to be taken. If a test day photo is required, you cannot take the exam unless consent for a photo to be taken has been given by you or a parent or guardian. For more information, contact your Centre.
- If you do not feel well on the day of the exam or think that your work may be affected for any other reason, tell the supervisor immediately. If appropriate, the Centre will report this to Cambridge Assessment English for consideration when deciding your result.
- If you miss the exam because of illness, you may be allowed a full or partial refund. You will need to give medical evidence to your Centre for this to be considered.
